

- Using the client software in LAN and remotely .

1. Find this file  IPCClient in the CD,install it.After installation,you will find the

on your desktop.

2. Double click  IPCClient to run the program,the following operation interface will be shown.

both User Name and Password are admin

3.Firstly, click "Device", one window will pop up. Like following:

4. Then click search the cameras in LAN. You will see the camera device name, IP address, port, and DID.
5. Double click the camera IP address, a new window appears, input username and password, then confirm.
6. Click sure, the camera which you just added will show in the device list.
7. At last close the window, click the right button of the camera or double click it to open the video, then comes the camera video, in the meantime, the exclamation mark turns to be red.

The introduction of the operation interface .

Pan and tilt .

Image inverted.

Auto tilt .

Mirror.

Auto pan.

Zoom function.

IR control for night vision .

Focus function.

Snapshot\Record\Listen\Speak.

System configuration :

Normal settings

Local saving settings

Local source administration: All the cameras can be found and selected here

About the SD card video playback

For example

1).choose one image, then click right button, then go SET UP , choose SD card settings : first , make sure SD card inserted , then Formatting it -- select time-- Confirm . If your SD card have not inserted succeed , please delete this camera on the PC Client software, and reboot the camera , make sure this SD card inserted !!!

2). Go SD Card video playback to check the video files :

User setup :Creat \ Modify \Delete.

Alarm record : Alarm recording settings for all the cameras .

Screen : Multi-screen, see several cameras at the same time .

Note : Double clicking the screen,can enlarge the image.Double clicking again can go back.

And click the right button can go to the set up (DDNS, Alarm,Email,FTP...)